

Brett B. Thompson-May is Senior Attorney and Deputy Director of Legal Services at the Mississippi Board of Nursing. She is a 2003 graduate of Mississippi College School of Law where she was the recipient of the Joey Phillips Outstanding Student of the Year Award and Robert G. Gillespie Moot Court Award. She was a practicing attorney in Forest and Brandon, Mississippi before joining the Mississippi Board of Nursing in 2007 as Senior Attorney. She is lead prosecutor and responsible for managing litigation involving disciplinary matters of all licensed nurses in the state of Mississippi.

Brett is a 1997 magna cum laude graduate of the University of Mississippi where she was inducted into the Ole Miss Hall of Fame. She is a native of Forest, Mississippi and eldest daughter of Freddie and Mary Lynn Bagley. She is married to Meridian Attorney Bill May and has two children, Wright, a freshman at Jackson Prep and Olivia Merritt, a sixth grader at Hartfield Academy. She is a member of St. Peters-by-the-Lake Episcopal Church.