

Christa Rouse Bishop oversees all internal and external communication activities for Cooperative Energy including print and electronic media, audio/visual, public relations, advertising, and social media outlets. She also publicly represents Cooperative Energy on the local, state, regional and national levels and serves on the Senior Management Team for the cooperative. Christa began in Cooperative Energy's legal department in 2008, originally serving as staff attorney before progressing to director of legal affairs. Christa, a Hattiesburg native, is a graduate of Vanderbilt University and Mississippi College School of Law. She serves on the board of the Mississippi Energy Institute and is a 2009 graduate of Leadership PineBelt. Prior to joining Cooperative Energy, Bishop was in private practice in Atlanta, Georgia. She resides with her daughter, Vivi, in Hattiesburg.