

Greg Burks is a private client advisor and First Vice President with Renasant Bank of Tupelo since 2007 in their wealth management division. He is responsible for not only private banking clients but does corporate lending and also assists Toyota Manufacturing and their Tier One supplier needs in the automotive industry in north Mississippi.

Greg graduated from the University of Mississippi in 1986 with a BBA in managerial finance with minors in accounting and mathematics. His work background includes a two year stint with Ford Motor Credit in Nashville, TN then to Lucky Star Industries, a family owned business which contracted for Levi Strauss where he was plant manager then the business was converted to upholstered furniture under the name of Advantage Furniture where he was president for 10 years before selling this operation and becoming national sales manager for Frankel Industries.

Greg is involved with several organizations in and around the Tupelo area to include the Yocona Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America where he is on the executive board and is currently serving as VP of fund development. He is also a charter board member of Project Stay Close which is a neonatal project for north Mississippi in addition to being a member and past board member of Kiwanis Club International. Greg is also a member of First Presbyterian Church where he is a past ruling elder as he and his wife Leslie of 31 years are both lifelong residents of Tupelo. They have two grown children Taylor and Haley whom have both just recently married.